

I AM YOUR FLAG

I am your Flag. I've been kicked, trampled, burned and shot full of holes. I have fought battles, but I prefer the untroubled air of a world at peace. I am your flag, I represent the freedom of humanity, and I shall fly high, thundering in silence for the whole world to hear. My gentle rustling in the breeze sounds out the warning to all whom would bury me forever. For those who have perished for my right to freedom of flight; for those who will die and indeed for those who will live, I stand as a symbol for freedom loving people. I've been carried into battle in faraway lands always for the cause of freedom. I am bloodstained, torn and many times wearied and saddened by the thousands who have paid the supreme sacrifice. Do not let it all be for nothing. Tell me the brave have died for a worthwhile cause. Be proud of what I represent and display me for all to see.

Whether you call me "Old Glory", "Stars and Stripes" or "Star Spangled Banner", I shall fly forever as a symbol of your freedom as I did for your ancestors and I shall for your heirs.

May God Bless those that fight for our freedom and bring families and loved ones together at this holiday season to celebrate and give thanks to those that serve our country. The NYRWA wishes all our members, family and friends a safe and happy holiday season.
